PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is the desire of both parties to this Agreement to maintain and develop the existing harmonious relations between the Employer and the members of the Union, to promote co-operation and understanding between the Employer and its employees, to recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions and elimination of waste, and to promote morale and well-being of all employees included in the bargaining unit represented by the Union:

THEREFORE, to implement the foregoing, the Parties hereby mutually covenant and agree to the following:

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION AND SCOPE

- (a) The London Public Library Board, or anyone authorized on its behalf, recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent for all employees who are employed by the London Public Library Board, save and except the following:

Management and Administrative positions exempted by virtue of the Ontario Labour Relations Act (hereafter cited as OLRA);

Pages;

Students hired for the school vacation period;

or by virtue of agreement of the Parties.

(The Parties agree that the attached Appendix B is a complete list of excluded positions, which have been agreed to by the Parties as of the date of ratification.)

When new bargaining unit positions are created they will be referred to the Job Evaluation Committee. When changes occur to the list of excluded positions, the Union Executive will be notified in writing.

- (b) The Library Board, or anyone authorized on its behalf, hereby consents to negotiate with the Union or any authorized committee thereof, in any and all matters affecting the relationship between the Parties to this Agreement, looking forward to a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.
- (c) Permanent part-time employees are persons hired to work up to twenty-one (21) hours per week on a permanent basis. The application of the Collective Agreement to permanent part-time employees is set out specifically in Appendix D.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION SECURITY

The Employer agrees that it will deduct from the pay of all employees who are members of the Union and covered by this Agreement, an amount specified by the Union in writing, as being the amount of its monthly dues, such deductions to be made bi-weekly. All other employees, who are not members of the Union but who are covered by this Agreement, will pay an amount equal to the monthly dues, such deductions also to be deducted bi-weekly.

- 2.02 The Employer agrees to remit such monies monthly to the authorized officers of the Union, as specified in writing, addressed to the Secretary.
- 2.03 The Employer agrees to advise all new employees upon hire with the London Public Library that a Collective Agreement is in effect, to show all new employees how to access the Collective Agreement document on the London Public Library Intranet, to provide employees with a copy of such Agreement, and to advise that an interview will be conducted to acquaint the new employee with the benefits and duties of union membership. The Union shall be advised of a casual or probationary employee's first working day and a union representative will be allowed a one-half (1/2) hour interview during the orientation period to review the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS

3.01 Permanent Employee

- (a) The term employee in this contract shall be taken to mean an employee of the London Public Library Board as defined in Article 1.
- (b) All employees shall be considered permanent employees after serving a four (4) month probationary period.
- (c) The probationary period of any employee may be extended for a further specified period of time by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. All requests for extensions will be considered and will not be unreasonably denied.

3.02 Librarians

A Librarian is defined as one who holds a Master's degree in Library and/or Information Sciences from an institution recognized by the London Public Library Board.

3.03 Casual

- (a) Casual employees are persons hired for special projects, during periods of heavy workload or to replace permanent employees absent due to illness, leave of absence, vacation or for any other reason.
- (b) Such employees shall be paid at the hourly rate equivalent to an annual rate not less than the minimum nor more than the maximum annual salary for the position filled.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, a casual employee shall not become a permanent or probationary employee; or be covered by any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement save for Articles 2, 5, 7, 10 and 15. With respect to Article 10.03, it is understood that shifts offered to casual employees may include split shifts solely at the employer's discretion. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall be in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

- (d) Casual employees will not accumulate seniority. The employer will record accrued service time of casual employees (on a pro rata basis for part-time work) and will consider accrued service time of casual employees in the hiring for permanent positions and/or temporary positions within the scope of this Collective Agreement.
- (e) A casual employee who has accumulated fifty-two (52) weeks (a minimum of 1,834 hours) of total service will be considered for a permanent position prior to the position being advertised externally. Should a casual employee not be the successful applicant, if requested, the employer will meet with the casual employee to discuss his or her application.
- (f) Should a casual employee be the successful applicant for a posted permanent vacancy, he or she shall be credited with seniority for previous accrued service.
- (g) Progression within the salary grid shall commence upon appointment to a permanent position only.
- (h) It is understood and agreed that the employer may discipline or dismiss a casual employee for any bona fide reason providing that the employer does not act in bad faith.

ARTICLE 4 - RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.01 The Union acknowledges that it is exclusively the function of the Employer to:

- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (b) hire, discharge, direct, classify, transfer, promote, demote, lay off and suspend or otherwise discipline employees, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, provided that a claim of discriminatory promotion, demotion, transfer or layoff or that an employee has been suspended or discharged without just and reasonable cause, may be treated as a grievance as provided under the Grievance Procedure;
- (c) maintain and enforce rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, governing the conduct of the employees; and
- (d) manage the affairs of the Employer and, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, to determine the work to be performed, the job content, the qualifications to perform the work required, the number of personnel required from time to time, the standards of performance for all employees, the methods, procedures and equipment to be used, and all other matters concerning the Employer's operations not otherwise specifically dealt with elsewhere in this Agreement.

- 4.02 The Employer agrees that these functions will be exercised in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Agreement including Article 7 (Grievance Procedure).
- 4.03 All employees agree to follow procedures as outlined by the responsible authorities and to give their best efforts at all times to the performance of their work, and will not in any circumstances deliberately delay, shirk, or cause delay to any work through grievances, but will carry on with their work while any grievance is being investigated. Employees of the Employer who are in positions of authority will not discriminate against any employee who has requested an investigation into a grievance, and all parties hereto will at all times extend the fullest cooperation to one another in order that the assigned work shall be carried on economically.

ARTICLE 5 – DISCRIMINATION

- 5.01 The Parties agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, upgrading, transfer, layoff, recall, discipline, classification, discharge or otherwise related to the administration of this Collective Agreement by reason of any grounds prohibited under the Ontario Human Rights Code or by reason of his or her membership or activity in the Union, or for any other reason that would breach applicable Canadian legislation.
- 5.02 The Employer endorses the right of every employee to work in an environment free from harassment and provides employees with a process for resolving harassment complaints that might arise. Employees may pursue all avenues in the Employer's policies and the Collective Agreement, including the grievance procedure, for resolving harassment complaints that may arise.

ARTICLE 6 - REPRESENTATION

- 6.01 The Employer agrees to recognize a committee of not more than five (5) stewards, appointed or selected by the Union from amongst employees in the bargaining unit who have completed their probationary period, for the purpose of assisting in presenting grievances as outlined in Article 7; or making representations on matters arising under this Agreement. It is understood, however, that the Employer shall not be required to meet with more than three (3) members of the committee at any one time.

- 6.02 The Employer agrees to recognize a Union-Management Committee which shall consist of not more than four (4) employees appointed or selected by the Union from amongst employees in the bargaining unit who have completed their probationary period, and four (4) representatives of the Employer. The purpose of the Union-Management Committee shall be to meet once each month on some mutually agreeable date to discuss matters of mutual interest. Whenever possible, agendas of matters for discussion shall be exchanged seven (7) days before each meeting of the Committee. The Chair will alternate between the Employer and the Union. The Employer agrees to give a minimum of sixty (60) days notice to, and to openly discuss with, the union representatives through the Union-Management Committee, any substantial reorganization or changes to the Library system, including those arising from technological change and outsourcing, that might have a direct impact upon employees. The Union will be provided in advance with such information as may be required to meaningfully discuss matters which come before the Committee.
- 6.03 The Employer further recognizes the right of the Union to appoint or otherwise select a Negotiating Committee of not more than five (5) employees appointed or selected by the Union from amongst employees in the bargaining unit who have completed their probationary period. This Committee will be for the purpose of conducting negotiations as contemplated in Article 21. The Negotiating Committee shall be granted three (3) days off duty with pay for the purpose of preparing proposals for negotiations with the Employer.
- 6.04 The parties shall notify one another, in writing, of the names of the persons selected or appointed in accordance with Articles 6.01, 6.02, 6.03 and 6.07 on an annual basis by the second week in January, and thereafter as changes occur.
- 6.05 The Employer shall not enter into any agreement with any employee which is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 6.06 Job Evaluation Committee shall consist of three (3) Management representatives and two (2) alternates and three (3) Union representatives and two (2) alternates for the purpose of evaluating new or revised jobs in the bargaining unit.
- 6.07 As per attached Letter of Understanding, the Joint Health and Safety Committee shall consist of three (3) union and three (3) management representatives for the purpose of performing the duties prescribed by the Occupational Health and Safety Act.
- 6.08 Pay for time spent by union representatives related to the Committees above shall be paid for by the Employer consistent with the established practice: for Union-Management, and Job Evaluation, pay shall be for meeting time with the Employer; for Negotiating, pay shall be for meeting time with the Employer plus the three (3) days per representative noted; for Grievance and Joint Health and Safety, pay shall be for meeting time with the Employer and reasonable investigation time related to the business of the Committees.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.01 It is the mutual desire of the Parties hereto that complaints of employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an employee has no grievance until the employee's immediate supervisor has first been given an opportunity to adjust the complaint. If an employee has a complaint, it shall be discussed with the employee's immediate Manager/Director within five (5) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have become known or ought reasonably to have become known; failing settlement within two (2) working days thereafter, it may then be taken up as a grievance within two (2) working days following the advice of the immediate Manager or Director's decision in the following manner and sequence:

STEP NO. 1

The employee may present a grievance to the immediate Manager/Director and may have the assistance of the area grievance steward in doing so. The grievance shall be in writing on a grievance form approved by the Employer and the Union and shall include the nature of the grievance, the remedy sought, and the section or sections of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated; failing settlement, the immediate Manager/Director shall deliver a decision, in writing, within five (5) working days following the presentation of the grievance. Failing settlement:

STEP NO. 2

Within three (3) working days after the decision in Step No. 1 is given, the employee (who may request the assistance of a committee member) may submit the grievance in writing to the Manager, Human Resources, or designate, who shall deliver a decision in writing within three (3) working days following the presentation of the grievance. The assistance of the Grievance Committee may be requested by either the griever or the Employer. It is agreed that the Parties to this Agreement may have the assistance at any time, of any representative, solicitor or other authorized agent as they may require, at Step No. 2 of the Grievance Procedure or at any subsequent stage. Failing settlement:

STEP NO. 3

Within ten (10) working days after the decision in Step No. 2 is given, the grievor, who may request the assistance of the Grievance Committee, may submit the grievance in writing to the Chief Executive Officer or designate. A meeting will then be held within twenty (20) working days between the Chief Executive Officer or designate and the Grievance Committee; and an accredited representative of the Union shall be present at the request of either the Employer or the Union. The decision of the Chief Executive Officer or designate shall be delivered in writing within seven (7) working days. It is understood that the Chief Executive Officer or designate may have such counsel and assistance as may be desired at any such meeting.

- 7.02 Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure of any grievance between the Parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided. If no written request for arbitration is received within twenty (20) working days after the decision under Step No. 3 is given, the grievance shall be deemed to have been settled.
- 7.03 Where no written answer has been given within the time limit specified, the grievance may be submitted to the next step of the foregoing procedure, including arbitration.
- 7.04 It is agreed that a grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be originated under Step No. 2 and the time limits set out with respect to that Step shall appropriately apply. It is understood, however, that the provisions of this section may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees and that the regular Grievance Procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.
- 7.05 No adjustment effected under the Grievance Procedure or Arbitration Procedure shall be made retroactive prior to the date the grievance was initiated under the Grievance Procedure, except as to any clerical or other error of a similar nature, involving an employee's salary.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

- 8.01 When either party requests that any matter be submitted to arbitration as hereinbefore provided, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other Party to this Agreement, and at the same time name its appointee to the Arbitration Board. Within five (5) days thereafter, the other Party shall nominate an arbitrator. The two (2) appointees so nominated shall attempt to select, by agreement, a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board. If they are unable to agree upon such a Chairperson within a period of five (5) working days, they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint an impartial Chairperson.

Where both parties agree, a single arbitrator with the same limitation and powers as an Arbitration Board may be substituted for an Arbitration Board, except it is understood that either Party may unilaterally apply for a sole arbitrator under the "expedited arbitration" provisions of the Ontario Labour Relations Act (OLRA).

- 8.02 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 8.03 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure.
- 8.04 The Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to, or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 8.05 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties hereto, and the decision of the majority, and where there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson will be final and binding upon the Parties hereto, and the employee or employees concerned.
- 8.06 Each of the Parties hereto will bear the expense of its nominee to the Arbitration Board (as applicable), and the Parties will share equally the expenses, if any, of the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.
- 8.07 The time limits fixed in both the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures may be extended by consent of the parties to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE

- 9.01 It is understood and agreed that the Employer may discipline or dismiss a probationary employee for any bona fide reason providing that the Employer does not act in bad faith.
- 9.02 A claim by a permanent employee, or an employee who has not completed his or her probationary period, that he or she has been unjustly discharged, suspended or otherwise disciplined shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Employer at Step No. 2 of Article 7 within three (3) working days after such action has taken place. Such special grievance may be settled under the Grievance Procedure or Arbitration Procedure by:
- (a) confirming the Employer's action; or
 - (b) reinstating the employee without loss of seniority and with full compensation for the time lost; or

- (c) any other arrangement which may be deemed just and equitable.

The time limits noted above will be extended to five (5) days when circumstances make it impossible for the Union to file a grievance earlier than that date.

- 9.03 Management shall not formally discipline, suspend, or discharge an employee without a union representative being present, except in circumstances where an employee is suspended pending investigation. In the latter case, the Union shall be informed as soon as practical and in no event later than one (1) working day after the commencement of the suspension.

ARTICLE 10 - WORKING HOURS

- 10.01 A normal workweek shall consist of thirty-five (35) hours on a five (5) day (Monday to Saturday) basis for all employees covered in this Agreement.

10.02

- (a) All authorized time worked outside the normal workday or the normal workweek, shall be considered as overtime for all employees who shall receive, at the discretion of the employee, compensation or time off at the rate of time and one-half (1½). All time off must be taken within ninety (90) days of the occurrence of overtime and must be on a date (or dates) mutually agreed upon by the employee and the supervisor.
- (b) All overtime work shall be approved by a Manager or Director prior to its occurrence except in cases of emergency wherein a supervisor may approve such required overtime.
- (c) For the purposes of this Agreement, the terms “normal workday” and “normal workweek” shall be interpreted to mean the work schedules as currently existing or modified as required, save and except employees required to work under the provisions of Article 10.05.

- 10.03 No employee shall receive both overtime payment and shift premium for the same hours worked. No employee shall be required to take time off during an employee's regular scheduled hours for the purpose of avoiding overtime payment. The supervisor and the employee may agree to a split shift if the scheduling is mutually agreeable.

- (a) Employees who work seven (7) hour shifts called in to work outside of their regularly scheduled hours shall be entitled to time and one-half (1½) for all hours worked with a minimum of four and one half (4½) hours pay at straight time rates. This provision shall apply only where an employee has completed the regular shift that day and it is further understood that where such period overlaps and extends into the employee's next regularly scheduled shift, the employee shall be paid only time and one-half (1 ½) to the commencement of such shift. Callback does not apply to scheduled split shifts.

- (b) As an integral part of some employees' job responsibilities there is requirement to serve stand-by assignments. During such assignments the employee(s) must carry the required "paging unit" or other approved communications equipment and must be available for call-in via the "paging unit" or communications equipment.

The payment for these periods of stand-by will be as follows:

Monday to Saturday: three-quarters (3/4) of an hour per day at regular rate

Sunday and Statutory Holidays: one (1) hour per day at regular rate.

10.05 Sunday Service

Sunday Service is established outside of the normal workweek of thirty-five (35) hours. Sunday Service work performed by permanent employees is done on a voluntary basis.

Employees will indicate, in writing, their interest to work Sunday Service. All work will be assigned on a rotating schedule on the basis of seniority and if the employee is qualified to perform the work.

The Employer will notify employees of the availability of Sunday Service shifts and seek expression of interest to work for the defined period of Sunday Service (October through May) no later than August 1st. Each Employee will indicate interest in specific shifts and indicate the maximum number of shifts they desire for the Sunday Service period. Employees will respond no later than August 31st. The assignment list will be posted no later than October 1st. Any errors may be brought to the attention of the Employer within seven (7) days, at which time the list will be deemed to be final.

The use of the rotating schedule is effective August 2004. Each shift during the defined period of Sunday Service will be allocated on the basis of seniority and qualifications to do the work. No employee shall be assigned more than one (1) shift during the defined period until all who have expressed interest have been assigned a shift to work. An employee who declines or does not work a shift he or she is assigned will be considered to have been given the opportunity to work and will not be assigned another shift in lieu of the declined or missed shift.

All authorized time worked for Sunday Service shall be at the overtime rate of time and one half (1½) times regular time. Employees shall receive, at the discretion of the employee, compensation or time-off for time worked.

The Employer may utilize casual employees for Sunday Service and hours worked will be paid at straight time hourly rates.

Sunday hours worked by a caretaker which form part of his or her Monday shift shall be considered to be part of the normal workweek and are excluded from this Article.

- 10.06 All employees shall be entitled to a fifteen-minute (15) break period in the forenoon and in the afternoon or in each half of a shift, as the case may be.
- 10.07 Where practical, overtime opportunities will be offered on an equitable basis as is possible. Overtime work in excess of the normal workweek shall be voluntary except in cases of emergency circumstances.
- 10.08 Employees working longer than nine (9) hours continuously shall be entitled to a meal allowance of fifteen ($15.00) dollars.
- 10.09 Special Provisions – Information Technology Services and Wolf Performance Hall and Community Meeting Space Services: in addition to the provisions of Article 10.02 (c), it is further understood that incumbents in Information Technology Services and Wolf Performance Hall and Community Meeting Space Services will be expected to work irregular hours on occasion, such right to be exercised in a reasonable manner. The incumbent(s) may refuse to work the irregular hours asked of them, if they are able to satisfy the Employer that there are extenuating circumstances. Compensatory time off for overtime on the basis of one and one half (1 ½) hours for each hour so worked afforded for work outside the normal work day or week (regardless of the day of the week) or compensation on that basis, at the discretion of the Employer. Compensatory time off will be scheduled as mutually agreed upon by the employee and the Director/Manager. The Parties recognize that, in the event of Library Sunday openings, Article 10.05 applies to ITS staff.

ARTICLE 11 - PAID HOLIDAYS

RE: VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

During the 2005-2006 Collective Agreement negotiations, the Parties agreed to revise the Letter of Understanding regarding the Volunteer Program as follows:

1. It is agreed and understood that the use of volunteers shall be limited to the provision of services and the performance of work which would not otherwise be performed or provided by the Library Board. It is further understood, without limiting the generality of the above, that volunteers shall not displace bargaining unit staff due to sick leave, vacation, temporary or any other leaves of absence or perform any other work of the bargaining unit. The use of volunteers shall be suspended during a labour dispute including during a strike or lockout.
2. The Parties agree that nothing in this Letter of Understanding alters or amends Article 1 of the Collective Agreement.
3. During the term of the current Collective Agreement, the Parties may review the Volunteer Program and may refine the provisions of this letter subject to mutual agreement and ratification by the Parties.
4. Volunteers are people who voluntarily extend their services to actively support the Library, without remuneration.
5. A designated management employee will be responsible for the Volunteer Program, including but not limited to the recruitment, selection, training and evaluation of volunteers. Supervisors may be required to provide assistance with volunteer orientation to the location specific application of training, in order to facilitate service delivery to the public.
6. The Volunteer Committee shall consist of up to four (4) union representatives and up to four (4) employer representatives. Meetings will be held for the purposes of reviewing volunteer programs, projects and volunteer work opportunities.

7. In reviewing individual volunteer work opportunities, the union representatives on the Committee will determine if the position is in accordance with Principle 1 of this Letter of Understanding. Union concurrence for individual work opportunities is required before the work opportunity will be implemented.
8. Outstanding matters may be referred for discussion to the Union-Management Committee, and either Party may have in attendance such representatives as are necessary for a knowledgeable discussion of the matter at issue.
9. All the principles and good practices that relate to sound human resources administration will be applied to volunteers.
10. An education program will be delivered to the Board, staff and the Union, on the role of volunteers.

Implementation Working Group

An implementation working group will be established in Fall of 2016, with three employer paid representatives of the Union meeting with management representatives to discuss implementation issues as they arise. The working group will monitor the implementation and the meetings will provide a forum for the Union to provide input into the implementation process. The implementation group may also develop guidelines for use by Supervisors in dealing with scheduling during the transition. A key role will be to provide support to Supervisors during the implementation in dealing with vacation scheduling issues, recognizing the unusual nature of scheduling during this time period.

The parties will appoint one individual each to act as Advisors to the working group.

APPENDIX C

REGULATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR SICK LEAVE CREDITS TO THE EMPLOYEES OF THE LONDON PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD

Pursuant to Section 21 of The Public Libraries Act, R.S.O. 1970, the London Public Library Board hereby provides a system of sick leave credits for its employees, defined under Section 1, as follows:

1. Definitions

- (a) "Employee" shall mean any salaried, full-time person in the employ of the London Public Library Board as of April 30th, 1985, or any part-time person who is employed as of April 30th, 1985 on a permanent basis and who is scheduled to work at least seventeen (17) hours per week.

Any permanent full-time or part-time employee hired after April 30th, 1985 shall be entitled only to Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9 and 10 herein and, further, Sick Leave Credits shall accumulate to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) days.

- (b) "Board" shall mean the London Public Library Board.
- (c) "Continuous Service" shall mean that period of unbroken employment with the Employer, calculated from the date of the beginning of an employee's then current service with the Employer. Employment shall not be deemed to be broken by reason of an employee being on leave of absence with or without pay.
- (d) "Retirement" shall mean an employee leaving the service of the Employer by reason of attaining or passing a retirement age under any pension scheme of the Employer, or by reason of the Employer retiring the employee on pension because of illness, disease, or injury.

2. Save as hereinafter mentioned, an employee who is employed between the first (1st) and seventh (7th) day inclusive of a month, at the conclusion of the last working day of that month shall have earned and have credited one and one-half (1 ½) working days of Sick Leave Credits (based on a total of ten and one-half (10 ½) hours per month); an employee who is employed after the seventh (7th) day of any month at the conclusion of the last working day of the month following shall have earned and have credited one and one-half (1 ½) working days (ten and one-half (10 ½) hours) of Sick Leave Credits. Such Sick Leave Credits to accumulate at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) working days (ten and one-half (10 ½) hours) for each month of continuous employment thereafter. The time during which an employee is absent through illness or injury and is being paid by reason of Sick Leave Credits, or is receiving remuneration from the Employer awarded by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board for temporary disability, shall be included in computing that employee's Sick Leave Credit as though that employee were not absent, but there shall be no credit entitlement for time when an employee is absent through illness or injury when Sick Leave Credits have been exhausted, or for the time during which an employee is on leave of absence, either with or without pay. From such Sick Leave Credits there shall be deducted all days during such period of continuous service for which an employee has received from the Employer remuneration during absence due to illness or injury. Such credit shall be accumulated from year to year except that employees hired after April 30th, 1985 shall accumulate credit to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) days and, save as herein otherwise provided, an employee shall be eligible to be paid when absent through illness or through injury received while off duty so long as Sick Leave Credits are available, but not otherwise. When so paid, the number of working days absent shall be deducted from the employee's accumulated Sick Leave Credits. Permanent part-time employees whose employment is at least seventeen (17) hours per week shall be entitled to Sick Leave Credits computed on a pro rata basis; but employees working less than seventeen (17) hours per week shall not be entitled to Sick Leave Credits or to be paid while absent from duty.

3. Where an employee with unused Sick Leave Credits is absent as a result of an injury received while on duty, or illness inherent to the occupation, and as a result is receiving Workers' Compensation as awarded by the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board, the employee shall receive the difference between regular pay and the award of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board. If Sick Leave Credits are so used, a deduction therefore shall be made from the employee's accumulated Sick Leave Credits in the same manner as hereinbefore set forth.
4. Whether or not an employee's Sick Leave Credits have been exhausted, the employee who is absent due to illness or non-work-related injury, may make a written application to the Employer for a leave of absence without pay in accordance with Article 13.01 (h). Additional Sick Leave Credits will not accrue during the period of this leave. After two (2) consecutive years on Long Term Disability (LTD), if an employee is unable to return to work, any accrued Sick Leave Credits will either be paid out as per Section 7 of Appendix C or the employee may use the credits to fund the continuation of benefits or any other mutually agreeable disposition of the accrued Sick Leave Credits to the maximum payout value.

5. If an employee cannot report to work due to an illness, the employee must notify his or her immediate supervisor, or designate, prior to the start of the scheduled shift or within a reasonable time if circumstances prevent the employee from notifying the supervisor, or designate, prior to the scheduled shift.
6. An employee must provide good and sufficient proof of illness upon return to work or within fifteen (15) calendar days of the beginning of the illness, whichever period is shorter, and proof must be provided for every fifteen (15) day period or part thereof or at any time upon the request of the Manager, Human Resources. Should the Manager, Human Resources request proof of illness prior to the return of the employee or more frequently than each fifteen (15) day period, the Employer will pay the cost of the proof of illness supplied by a qualified medical or dental practitioner.
7. Every employee who was actively employed by the Employer prior to May 1st, 1985, and who has then had eight (8) or more years' continuous service shall be granted upon termination of employment – other than dismissal by the Employer for good and sufficient cause – leave with pay or an amount equal to his/her salary or wages for one-half (½) the number of days standing to the employee's credit and, in any event, not in excess of the amount of one-half (½) year's earnings at the rate received immediately prior to termination of employment. No additional Sick Leave Credits shall accumulate during that time in which an employee is being paid after termination of employment.
8. Where an employee who was an employee prior to May 1st, 1985 dies while in the employ of the Employer, having then had at least eight (8) years' continuous service with the Employer, the Employer shall make a grant to the deceased employee's estate, computed from the date of death, of the amount which would have been paid had such an employee terminated employment pursuant to the preceding section.
9. The Employer shall maintain records pertaining to the employees' Sick Leave Credits, additions to and deductions there from and of all employees reported on the sick and injured list. Information as required shall be furnished by supervisors on regular Attendance Report forms.
10. The employee may request their sick leave balance at any time from their supervisor.
11. The provisions of paragraph 65(b) of Section 352 of The Municipal Act, R.S.O. 1990, S207, page 47, with respect to the transfer of Sick Leave Credits shall apply.

12. Effective January 1st, 1989, part-time employees shall be entitled to sick leave on a pro rata basis and unused sick leave days shall accumulate for future use to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) days, but shall have no cash surrender value. Unused sick days accumulated by an employee who was a full-time employee prior to May 1st, 1985 and who then transferred to part-time may be vested for a future cash surrender value as outlined in Item 7 of this Appendix.

APPENDIX D

This Appendix shall apply to and set forth the conditions of employment of permanent part-time employees (herein called employees). The term "permanent part-time employee" shall mean an employee in the bargaining unit described in the Certificate of the Ontario Labour Relations Board dated May 16th, 1978.

The provisions of the Collective Agreement shall apply to permanent part-time employees with the following exceptions and modifications:

1. The normal work week shall be up to twenty-one (21) hours per week during the period Monday to Saturday inclusive. This may be averaged over a two (2) week pay period.
2. The probationary period shall be twice the period specified in Article 3.01(b).
3. Employees required to work up to thirty-five (35) hours in a week shall be paid at their regular rate of pay and overtime rates shall be paid for all hours worked over thirty-five (35) hours in a week.
4. There shall be a fifteen (15) minute break during each three and one-half (3 ½) hours of work in a day.
5. Part-time employees who qualify for a paid holiday will have the pay or lieu time calculated as per the provisions of the Employment Standards Act of Ontario.
6. Employees' vacation entitlement and per diem vacation pay shall be on a pro rata basis.
7. Employees shall be entitled to all leaves of absence in Article 13.01.
8. The employer shall pay on behalf of employees a pro rata portion of the premium contribution for full-time employees pursuant to Article 14.01, 14.02, 14.04, 14.05 and 14.06.
9. Seniority and grid progression shall accumulate on a pro rata basis.
10. Education Allowance shall apply to permanent part-time employees to a maximum of $250.00 in one (1) calendar year under the conditions outlined in Article 20.04.
11. Employees shall be paid in the manner described in Article 18.02.
12. Salary progression shall apply only to time worked after April 30th, 1978. Each employee shall be placed at the six (6) month level on May 1st, 1978 and shall receive an increment on the employee's anniversary date thereafter (service shall be pro-rated in the same fashion as seniority).

An employee hired after April 30th, 1978 shall be placed at the starting salary and shall progress accordingly.

13. Pro rata shall mean an employee's hours worked per week over thirty-five (35). For the purpose of benefits pro rata shall be the average hours worked over the previous year.

In the case of a part-time employee who regularly works additional hours over what the employee is regularly scheduled, pro rata would then be the ratio of hours worked to that of a full-time position. This ratio will be used to calculate seniority and anniversary date for increments.

Where a part-time employee is temporarily assigned to a full-time position, the part-time employee's seniority shall be adjusted such that all time spent in the full-time position is included in the calculation of seniority and anniversary date.
